There's something creepy and crawly heading to Atria Watford this October Half Term, and all ghosts, goblins, and witches are invited to enjoy the fun.

From Monday 23 October, mini monsters can have FREE fun each day of the week outside Puttshack:

Monday 23 - Gingerbread Mummies. These tasty spooky treats are perfect for Halloween as children get hands on with white fondant to create edible bandages!

Tuesday 24 - Halloween Slime Who doesn't love some halloween gore? Children will love making their own take home slimetastic creations.

Wednesday 25 - Haunted houses The perfect Halloween home decoration can be made in this fun, creative workshop as children can decorate mini wooden haunted houses and pop a LED tea light in to take home.

Thursday 26 - Zombie coin banks Children can save up their trick or treat pennies in these ceramic Zombie coin banks that they can decorate in this ghoul-tastic workshop.

Friday 27 - Trick or Treat bags Children will love decorating their own trick or treat bags in time for Halloween when they can fill them with treats and goodies.

Watford Market will be full of spooky treats, performers and street food.
Friday, October 27, between 5.30pm & 10pm
There will be family-friendly performances from Scary Canary at 7pm as well as a magician walking around the space.
It will also have a Halloween trail in which children will be able to pick up treats along the way as well as many different photo opportunities.
Visitors are encouraged to wear fancy dress
